Farewell letter from Rev Melanie Greenall

Methodist Minister

Dear Friends,

Just before I moved from Kendal, I decided to have a day out to Muncaster Castle as I hadn't been for over 20 years so I set off, duly following my sat-nav as it guided me through beautiful Ambleside. Lovely day. All was well until the sign said steep roads, narrow bends....proceed with caution.

Naively I continued.....there was the sign again – Wrynose and Hardknott passes ahead! Nowhere to do a U-turn...how bad can it be?

Wrynose conquered with a sense of elation, I carried on to Hardknott....up a hill .....where did the road go as I appeared to be heading into thin air!!!

“Dad what have I done?” I said. Then the road re-appeared somewhere below my left shoulder! By the time I got to Dalegarth station I was much in need of cake, coffee and a sit down.

As I slowly recovered my nerve, I reflected on how life and faith feels like that at times – all is well, a few concerns maybe, then God seems to disappear as suddenly as the road did. ‘Where did he go?’ ‘What now?’ ‘Where next?’

Being involved in the Methodist Stationing process can sometimes seem like that as you step out in faith, not quite into thin air, but hoping the Divine One will re-appear and make the way ahead clear, even if its rather nerve-racking. You don't get a certificate saying I survived (such as could be bought at Dalegarth!) But in both cases, the truth remains – pause, take stock, take a breath and you will make it through to the other side, hopefully not to be dive-bombed by vultures, as I was, as part of the flying display at Muncaster. What a day!

Arriving in Morecambe I was told to navigate via the Shrimp roundabout, so complex that locals learning to drive have a whole lesson in how to navigate it!

I wonder what God is teaching me about patience, about trust, about spending time with his word, among his people, that I may better be able to find the path which leads home to the Divine love that speaks my name, calls me to be his disciple, his conduit, guiding others too.

As we must necessarily navigate our own faith journeys, I pray that we, you and I, may learn the ways of God, put our trust in him, that though he seems absent, he is still close at hand.

May God bless you richly on your travels (and keep you away from Hardknott!).

Your fellow pilgrim,

Melanie

From the Acting Editor

You will have noticed that Sandylands Methodist Church are no longer on the front cover of this magazine.

Revd. Melanie Greenall, who has been part of the Kendal Methodist Circuit for 5 years, left at the end of July to take up a new position in the North Lancashire Circuit. There will be a Welcome Service on Tuesday 2nd September at 7pm at Torrisholme Methodist Church for Melanie as she begins her ministry there.

The Rev Marie-Anne Kent is moving from Southport to the Kendal Circuit and on Sunday 7th September there will be a local welcome service for her at 10:30am, at Stricklandgate Methodist Church.

Due to these moves and other reasons, Sandylands have decided to no longer be part of this magazine. We have appreciated their input and Rev Mealnie's occasional monthly thoughts; she kindly agreed, in her busy schedule, to send us this farewell message.

We still need people to help with the magazine. Could you become part of a team putting together this monthly publication?

Access to a computer is required, but the work is not too tasking and training will be given.

Please speak with Revd Michelle or Lynne in the Beacon Team Office for more details.

Come along to Costa Coffee, Elephant Yard, Kendal, for a series of informal events on Sunday evenings - the next one is on Sunday 21st September 5.00-6.45pm when the panellists who work in a church will answer questions on how their faith is applied in their everyday lives.

Once again many thanks to Andrew Stewart, who attends St George's Church, for compiling the crossword. Answers on page 17.

We would love to have your contributions and stories in future editions of the magazine. Please send them to admin@beaconteam.org.uk.

Be wary of Phone Call Fraudsters

Cumbria Police want our communities to be aware of phone calls from fraudsters – to know about the risks and to stay vigilant to the threat. One scam is known as courier fraud and it is particularly worrying as it sometimes involves older people being targeted. Fraudsters sometimes pretend to be officials, such as bank fraud teams, police officers or HMRC officials. However, the scams can differ slightly from call to call. The fraudsters often request bank details, money to be sent electronically, cash to be withdrawn at the bank for collection or expensive items to be bought for collection at a later time.

If you receive a call you're not expecting, you should be suspicious. The vital things to remember are that your bank, other agencies and the police would:

- Never ask you for your bank account details or PIN number over the phone.
- Never ask you to withdraw money and send it to them via a courier, taxi, bank transfer or by any other means.
- Never ask you to send your bank cards or any other personal property to them via courier, taxi or by any other means.
- If you have any doubts about the identity of the person that you are speaking with, put the phone down and attend the bank or police station in person, wherever possible, to discuss the call you have received, or call a trusted number for the bank or police using a different telephone than the one that you have been contacted on.

It's recommended you wait at least five minutes and make sure you can hear a dialling tone before you call, as there have been cases of fraudsters keeping the line open after a victim has hung up.

If you think you have been the victim of a fraud you can report this to police on 101 and to Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 – or by visiting their website at www.actionfraud.police.uk

Name change: Because we have members from most of our churches, we want everyone feel included. Following members' agreement, a new name was chosen by Rev Michelle, supported by Ann Wodeman and myself. From September our Branch will be known as Beacon Team Mission Community Mothers Union.

Summer visit to the Kadampa Temple for World Peace, Conishead Priory at Ulverston. Our guide was a member of the Community at the Centre; he worked part time in the garden, and two days as a carer. He explained that over the years, the main building had been a private house, a nursing home and various other things; it is set in 70 acres of wooded grounds on the shores of Morecambe Bay with views to the Lake District mountains. Many people stay and volunteer. He took us to the Kadampa Temple for World Peace for a 15 minute guided meditation led by a Spanish lady. Our guide then explained what the symbols represented and answered questions. After that we enjoyed refreshments. Thank you to Judith for arranging the visit.

2nd July: Three members joined with Milnthorpe and Heversham to celebrate their 130th Anniversary. This was a very enjoyable afternoon - the service and address by Rev Angela Whittaker, the MU Choir, the afternoon tea and fellowship were perfect.

6th July: Nine members attended an afternoon service at Greystoke church, attended by the Worldwide President, Kathleen Snow, a lovely friendly lady from Canada, whom we chatted to not knowing who she was prior to the service. What a surprise when Anne Wodeman introduced her! How welcoming and friendly members from many churches across Cumbria are – we all enjoyed this afternoon.

9th July: Three members enjoyed friendship and tea at Staveley MU.

Rise up against violence campaign: I hope to have shoes and quotes in all our churches soon.

Please remember Georgina in your prayers as she continues her treatment. On a sad note, Anne Young, one of our members, has died. Please remember her family in your prayers. We will miss Anne.

We meet again on 24th September, 2pm in the Radley Room. Our speaker will be Rev Michelle. If you would like to join us, please come along, everyone is welcome.
